Obituaries

Malcolm Green

A memorial service was held last Thursday at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church for Malcolm Green Jr., 77, of 79 North Main St., who died Feb. 13 at South Shore Hospital after a brief illness.

Private interment was in Cohasset Central Cemetery.

Mr. Green was born in Boston and lived in Newtonville before moving to Cohasset seven years ago. He was president of Draper and Co. in Boston before retiring in 1969. Mr. Green belonged to the Wool Trade Association, the Brae Burn Country Club in Newton and the Algonquin Club in Boston.

Mr. Green leaves his wife, Evelyn; two daughters, Mrs. Barbara Bock of New Canaan, Conn. and Mrs. Joanne Millard of Cohasset; four brothers, John of Portsmouth, N.H., Charles of Marblehead, Walter of Milton and Robert of Topsfield; two sisters, Miss Anne Green and Miss Isabella Green, both of Milton; and six grandchildren.

Memorial donations may be made to the American Cancer Society, 47 West Elm St., Brockton 02401.

Philip Racette

A funeral mass was celebrated Monday at St. Anthony's Church for Philip J. Racette, 74, of 406 North Main St., who died Friday at South Shore Hospital after a long illness.

Burial was in Woodside Cemetery.

Mr. Racette was born in Manchester, N.H., and lived in Hull before moving to Cohasset 11 years ago. He was a retired, self-employed carpenter.

Mr. Racette belonged to the Quincy Elks and the Order of Foresters.

He leaves his wife, Viola; two sons, Richard of Wollaston and Robert of Ithaca, N.Y.; a daughter, Mrs. Janice Figueiredo of Cohasset; a brother, Napoleon of Bedford, N.H.; 12 grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

World Prayer Day March 2

On Friday, March 2, women throughout the world will celebrate World Day of Prayer. This year's service, on the theme "Spiritual Growth," was written by women in Africa.

Church Women United, the official sponsor of World Day of Prayer in the United States, invites residents to participate in an ecumenical service on March 2 at the Christ Lutheran Church, Route 3A, Scituate. The Rev. Michael Gruel will be the speaker. Coffee and refreshments will be served at 9:30 a.m., and the service is at 10 a.m.

Women have been worshipping together on World Day of Prayer since 1890. Add your prayers and offering to those of women all around the world on this historic day.

Programs and projects benefitted by the Church Women United include emergency food aid, ministries to refugees, political prisoners and their families, ministries to families in Northern Ireland, battered wives and children, Asian women's colleges and women's centers, community and rural health programs, prison programs, employment training programs, housing, and legislative workshops.
